Jane Murphy and Chairman Bill

What a fantastic meal supplied by the Sevens Pub.

President David and Brian talking about AFL and drugs.
David showing how much alcohol he has consumed.

Where are your friends Barrie??

Chairman Bill Sargood welcomed guests Robin Haberecht and Joy Elston and wished everyone a happy new year. He then asked President David to address the meeting.

President David expects the Club to be very busy in the next 6 months, one of the extra projects that the Board has decided to take on is the Euroa Gift on March 5th.

Chairman Bill introduced Jane Murphy to address the Club on the future plans for the Sevens Creek Hotel and the newly purchased Templeton on Tarcombe, the building restaurant next door. The restaurant next door will be open for Friday lunch and dinner, Saturday and Sunday Breakfast lunch and dinner. They are looking for a chef and staff and will not open until they find them. The main meals will be pizza and pasta. Home grown produce will ensure quality from garden to the plate. Renovations at the hotel will continue onto the Restaurant to make them blend in as one. Upstairs will not open as yet for they will start small downstairs and keep the quality up.

Special thanks to Richard Nettleton for writing the above, as I was unable to hear Jane because of the noise of the fan.

Business House Social Bowls starts on Wednesday 27th Jan at 7.00pm. I would like to encourage partners to try bowls, its great fun. You play triples where you have 3 bowls each in a team of three players. Rotary have entered 2 teams, High Gear and Low Gear and if there is a lot of interest we could have Angel's Gear as well. The fees are $5 per player and I will organise the teams each week so ring me on 0428 953044 if interested, it goes for 6 weeks I think.

A big city lawyer went duck hunting in rural North Wairarapa. He shot and dropped a bird, but it fell into a farmer's field on the other side of a fence. As the lawyer climbed over the fence, an elderly farmer drove up on his tractor and asked him what he was doing. The litigator responded, "I shot a duck and it fell in this field, and now I'm going to retrieve it."

The old farmer replied, "This is my property, and you are not coming over here."

The indignant lawyer said, "I am one of the best trial attorneys in New Zealand and, if you don't let me get that duck, I'll sue you and take everything you own."

The old farmer smiled and said, "Apparently, you don't know how we settle disputes in North Wairarapa. We settle small disagreements like this with the 'Three Kick Rule.'"

The lawyer asked, "What is the 'Three Kick Rule'?"

The Farmer replied, "Well, because the dispute occurs on my land, I get to go first. I kick you three times and then you kick me three times and so on back and forth until someone gives up." The attorney quickly thought about the proposed contest and decided that he could easily take the old codger. He agreed to abide by the local custom.

The old farmer slowly climbed down from the tractor and walked up to the attorney. His first kick planted the toe of his heavy steel toed work boot into the lawyer's groin and dropped him to his knees!
His second kick to the midriff sent the lawyer's last meal gushing from his mouth. The lawyer was on all fours when the farmer's third kick to his rear end, sent him face-first into a fresh cow pie.
The lawyer summoned every bit of his will and remaining strength and very slowly managed to get to his feet. Wiping his face with the arm of his jacket, he said, "Okay, you old fart. Now it's my turn."
The old farmer smiled and said, "Nah, I give up. You can have the duck."
