Could any suggested changes to the Eurota roster please be emailed to the Editor. It is too difficult to take note of changes at the meeting on the hop.

Billy's Blog

Thanks to Lisa from Strathbogie Health and Wellbeing for her free health checks that some of us took advantage of before our last meeting. It's a great service they are providing for our district and I was able to have a second serving of desert knowing my blood sugar levels were all good!

This week's program is Carl Leach and Gary Chowanetz showing us what's involved in the making of guitars – and a few lessons in how to make them sound good.

A good attendance of workers to set up the market on Saturday made things run smoothly and kept the clean-up time to a minimum. Thank you to all involved.

Thanks also to Michael Bell who took a load of library books from St. Johns to Donations in Kind in West Footscray last week. A coordinator from this group is coming to Euroa to examine what is now not required at Euroa Health. Donations in Kind is a group run by volunteers, including many Rotarians, who go through donations of furniture, clothing and much other equipment and forward it to needy organisations all over the world. Michael has suggested the board consider making a donation to them to help facilitate shipping costs at our next meeting.

See you all next Thursday.

Richard McGeehan is starting a walking group for Rotarians, partners and friends this Wednesday, May 24. All interested participants are to meet at the Rotary BBQ in the Seven Creeks Park at 7:30 am. The walk is estimated to be about an hour. All enquires to Richard for any more information.

Thursday Night's Meeting

Lisa Millington spoke to the meeting about the Strathbogie Shire's Health and Wellness program. She explained that this is a government funded initiative given that the shire does not have a public hospital. In order to maintain this funding, Lisa must undertake 160 health checks a month. The initiative is a consortium with Euroa, Nagambie and Violet Town Health.

Club members Richard Nettleton and Denis Nolan discuss their pet lambs on Thursday night.
