Any changes to the roster or reasonable suggestions to the editor should be emailed, as the editor and assistants are of an age that they need reminding, often.

Bernie's BUZZ

Just a reminder the meetings are on Wednesday evening for the next five weeks as a trial period. Several members have indicated their preference for Wednesdays so support from members sitting on the bench is appreciated.

I look forward to catching up with you all in the next couple of weeks.

Also, a reminder to members to put a note in your diaries for the luncheon – Under the Gumtrees at Killeen Barn on 14th April 2019.

Details on costs and how to book your seat will follow in the next couple of weeks.

Keep cool and let's hope we get a nice downpour in the next few days to assist with dams and low water supplies.

The raffle list will be out shortly and a couple of the Rotarians' partners have indicated they are happy to sell tickets at the rear of Burtons (booked in) and we also have the Shire dates booked.

Cheers, Bernie

General Business

1. Rob Morphet: James Carter has been in Seymour Hospital, he is on the mend.
2. Helen Waterworth: Update on Sunday 14th April "Lunch under the gum trees" function: 12noon – 4pm at Killeen Barn (Stables). Fowles Winery to manage the fundraising event. Entry fee not yet set. Hope to have 150 attend. Activities could include: auction, raffle, performance by Joan Fowles (opera singer). Any Rotarians like to be stewards??

Helen Brook, our friendly and efficient Farmers' Market Manager is recovering well from surgery for breast cancer at St Vincent's Hospital, Melbourne, according to her husband, Neale Williams. We have sent her flowers and wish her all the best in her recovery. Helen should be home sometime this week.

The number twelve walks into a bar and asks the bartender for a pint of beer.

"Sorry, I can't serve you," states the bartender.

"Why not?!" asks the number twelve with anger showing in its voice.

"You're under 18," replies the bartender.

Heather King has asked that the following poem be published in this week's Eurota. It seems that we have a number of poets in our Rotary midst. Heather says that this poem was read to the residents of Granite Hills last Friday in their regular session, written by, she suspects, our Secretary.

THE WIDOW TEALE

Tubby and Kingy were driving to town
From out in the bush when their car broke down.
So they walked to the farm of the widow Teale
Who invited them in and gave them a meal.

The widow said, 'Boys it's late and there's not much light,
You're both quite welcome to stay the night"
So they stayed the night and early next day
They fixed the car and went on their way.

It took more than twelve months for the puzzle to begin
In the form of a letter addressed to King.
He was quite perplexed as he broke the seal,
For it came from the lawyer of the widow Teale.

He thought for a while before he understood
Tubby that night had been up to no good.
So he sought Tubby out just to put his case
He said, "Remember that night at the widow's place?"

Tubby went quiet, turned a bright shade of red
"What if I do," was all he said.
"You went to the widow while I was asleep
And you gave her my name you miserable creep."

Tubby thought for a while before he spoke,
Then smiled and said - "Well I did play a joke."
King interrupted - "Well you've done no harm
The widow has died - and left me her farm."
