Bernie's Buzz

It is great to be back and thank you to all who have kept the Club on an even keel.

Also, I am pleased to see so many attending the Wednesday meetings.

Special thanks to those who have the raffle and Long Lunch and Ride the Ranges programs progressing exceptionally well.

I thought having the principals of these functions speaking last Wednesday evening gave us all an opportunity to put suggestions forward as the members did indeed do so...Thank you.

Next week is a partners' evening and we look forward to hearing Julia McKay speak and having a pleasant social evening.

AG Sally Mathieson will also be in attendance.

Cheers,

Bernie

President Bernie introduced members Helen Waterworth and Neil Tubb

Wednesday Night's Meeting

President Bernie

- Visited Parkes Rotary. Euroa Rotary drought assistance has been distributed through 500 vouchers. Vouchers for: food and bills. Received several letters of thanks.
- Received a letter of resignation from club member Wayne Sullivan. Before letter is tabled at the next Board Meeting, several members, time permitting, will visit Wayne to discuss the club exit-process.
- Euroa Citizens Band, Mr Russell Cooper, sent a letter of appreciation. Thanking the club for assistances with Carols by Candle Light.

Richard Long - Conference

- Checked numbers for Conference weekend. Cut off for numbers is this weekend.
- Raffle tickets to be sold @ the Conference.

Richard McGeehan – Rotary Family

- Reported that Alby Antonis recently underwent surgery and is making a great recovery.
- Condolences to Bob Irving whose father passed away recently.
- James Carter is back on the road.

Bill Sargood – Film Night

- Preparing for a film night 10/5/19. Suggested proceeds go to Happy Healthy Kids.

Eric Lund - Raffle

- Inform Eric when you can sell raffle tickets: 0457 951 849
- Selling tickets at: Longwood Beer & Wine Festive 3 March; Longwood Carriage Driving 22 March and; the Shell Service Centre in April.
- Members can you identify more locations where raffle tickets can be sold.

Mandy Edwards - Market

- Call goes out for more volunteers to assist at the Market Saturday 16 February.

Helen Waterworth Club discussion: Sunday 14th April lunch 12noon – 4pm at Killeen (Stables).

- Secured 5 prices to be auctioned. Members to identify more auction items.
- Name of function to be decided e.g.: Lunch @ Killeen; Lunch under the gum trees at @ Killeen.
- Quote received from Fowles Wine: 3 course meal (shared platters), alcohol not included @ $58.00 per head. Rotarians to act as stewards.
- Fowles wine and other alcohol for purchase during event.
- Fowles to donate 10% of alcohol sales to fundraiser.
- Catering for 100 – 150 guests.
- Guests to pay $100 ($58.00 meal / $42.00 donation to fundraiser).

- Lunch tickets to be sold on-line.
- To secure 100 - 150 guests: advertise on various Rotary platforms; Euroa Club members to consider inviting friends from outside the club.
- Article to be published in the Euroa Gazette: advertised as a Rotary Club of Euroa fundraising lunch with Fowles Wine as the major sponsor.
- Lengthy discussion on which local charity / cause we are fundraising for. Unanimous decision to support Happy Healthy Kids. This suggestion will be tabled at the next Board Meeting.
- Working group to move the project forward.

Neil Tubb Club discussion: Sunday 28th April Ride the Rangers

- $5000 bike to be won by anyone entering one of the long rides.
- Must book and pay on-line to win the bike.
- Bike, at cost, from new sponsor Leigh Evan.
- Suggested a Power Point Presentation be created for the Conference to market the event.
- Publicity to be emailed out in coming days.
- Suggested money fundraised through the event be for Happy Healthy Kids.

Chrystene Antonis reports that Alby has come through his operation quite well. She is home for the weekend leaving other family members on roster while she keeps the garden alive and will be returning to Melbourne on Tuesday. He will hopefully be able to eat and drink again and may be able to speak again using his valve. We wish them all the best and look forward to Alby's return to the club.

SUPER RAFFLE

Please, contact Eric on 0457 951 849 if you can help to fill these holes as indicated by the table below. This is a major fundraiser for the club to ensure we fund the project we have identified and we need all hands on deck.
